

CENTENNIAL HISTORY OF

(Stainer) and for the Offertory "And the Glory of the Lord" from Handel's Messiah. During this service Sara Hestor Foster, daughter of Dr. S. Turner Foster, Minister, will render a soprano solo "The Lord Is My Light" (Allitsen).

At the Historical Service Sunday evening the choir will present two anthems, "O Lord Our Governor" (Gadsby) and "The Heavens Are Telling" from Haydn's Creation. Miss Clarice Spencer, soprano, and Ralph A. Ball, tenor, will sing Stainer's beautiful duet "Love Divine All Love Excelling".

Wednesday evening the incidental music in connection with the Sunday School pageant is under the direction of Mrs. Preston A. Lambert and includes selections by the choir with instrumental accompaniments by Mrs. Lambert at the piano and Mr. Lambert at the organ. A special number "In a Monastery Garden" (Ketelbey) arranged in duet form for piano and organ will introduce the pageant.

At the Union Service Thursday evening, which will bring the Anniversary to a close, the choir will repeat two of the above anthems, "O Lord Our Governor" (Gadsby) and "O Clap Your Hands" (Stainer).

Following is the complete personnel of the choir: Soprano—Mrs. A. W. Patten, Mrs. H. S. Lee, Mrs. S. A. Purdy, Mrs. Geo. Siedler, Mrs. Wm. T. Budd, and the Misses Clarice Spencer, Hestor Foster, Martha Olver, Dorothy Lambert, Maxine Shepherd, Lois Scurry, Eleanor Scurry, and Rose Breeze.

Alto—Mrs. M. D. Shepherd, Mrs. Fuller Blickens, Mrs. Henry Hadsell, Mrs. Sidney Owens, Mrs. Preston Lambert, and the Misses Irene Jones and Carmella Molinaro.

Tenor—Ralph A. Ball, Gaylord D. Bevan, Sidney Owens, Maxwell D. Lathrop, Oscar Brunner, and Dr. U. G. Anderson.

Bass—Claude E. Olver, Stanley A. Purdy, Robert H. Lathrop, and Dr. G. Rex Brandow.

Organist and Director—Preston A. Lambert.

From THE CARBONDALE LEADER, June 22, 1929.